

Report on Gardening Duty Conducted by Sociology Department Semester II

Date: 27/02/26

On 27th February 2026 the students of the Sociology Department, Semester II actively participated in the Gardening duty assigned by our respected Faculty member.

The activity was carried out with great enthusiasm cooperation and strong sense of unity among the students various tasks such as cleaning the garden area, planting and maintaining the surrounding were performed collectively. The initiative not only contributed to the beautification of the campus but also encouraged teamwork, responsibility and environmental awareness among us.

Under the guidance of our faculties, the duty was successfully complete in a disciplined and coordinated manner. The experience was both productive and meaningful. Strengthening our bond as a department while promoting the value of shared responsibility.

Overall, the gardening duty was accomplished efficiently and harmoniously.