

Report on Departmental Garden Cleaning
Date: 27.02.2026

On 27th February 2026, a departmental garden cleaning was organized with the students of VIth Semester, B.Sc. Zoology. The area allocated to the department is routinely maintained. Activities like cleaning of the area and plantation of common plants are carried out by the students of the department.

Today, the students of VIth Semester carried out the cleaning of the area. This kind of activity allows the students to stay connected to nature and be a part of a clean and healthy environment.

Raksha Sharma, Lab attendant, Department of Zoology was in-charge of today's activity.
