Sonam Wangchuk Visit at Namchi Government College 03.04.2017

SONAM WANGCHUK

is an engineer, innovator, and an education reformist. He is the Founding Director of the Students' Educational and Cultural Movement of Ladakh (SECMOL) which was founded in 1988 by a group of students who had been in his own words, the 'victims' of an alien education system foisted on Ladakh. His efforts have led to rebuilding of the lost pride and self-confidence of the students of Ladakh through its educational reforms programme. He is also known for designing the SECMOL campus that runs completely on solar energy. Mr Wangchuk has also inspired character RANCHO played by Mr. Amir Khan in the movie "3 Idiots". Further he is the recipient of Rolex Award for Enterprise (2016) at Los Angeles, he has also won TERRA Award for his innovation of Ice Stupa an "Artificial Glacier".
