Establishment of the Department of History: A Comprehensive Report Sikkim Government College Namchi

An Overview

The Department of History at Sikkim Government College, Namchi was established in 2002 under the affiliation of North Bengal University, and it has since played a vital role in fostering academic inquiry. In 2005, the department introduced History as an honours subject, offering students a deeper and more focused exploration of historical studies.

The Department of History came under the direct ambit of Sikkim Central University in 2009 following the College's affiliation with Sikkim Central University in the same year.

Founding Members:

The founding faculty of the Department of History included distinguished educators such as Dr. Kalyan Kumar Pradhan and Mr Bisnu Basnett who were instrumental in shaping the department's initial academic direction. In addition to that, Mr Karma Samten Bhutia was the founding member of the honours course in the year 2005.

A REPORT ON FIELD TRIP TO GANJU LAMA VC MUSEUM AND THATHAGATA STAL, RAVANGLA, SIKKIM

The Department of History, organized a field trip for VI Semester History Honours students to Ganju Lama VC museum and Thathagata Stal, Ravangla, Sikkim on 29/05/2023.All together 61 students and two faculty viz. Ms Uden Lhamu Bhutia (HOD) and Dr. Gnudup Sangmo Bhutia went for the trip.

The aims and objectives of the trip was

- i. To highlight the importance of museum as a primary source of information about the past.
- ii. To emphasize the significance of oral sources in reconstructing the history.
- iii. To enlighten the students about the life and contribution of VC Ganju Lama in the Second World War.

iv. To make them aware about the significance of celebration of Saga Dawa, an important Buddhist festival of Sikkim.

In the morning of 29th May 2023, at around 10:20 a.m. we arrived at our first destination i.e. Ganju Lama VC Museum, which is located at his native village of Sangmo near Ravangla. The museum has collection of documents, letters, unseen photographs, uniforms, medals, souvenirs, and various artifacts, related to the life of VC Ganju Lama, a legend and War hero from Sikkim. Also information about his family origin, early life and career, his contribution in Burmese and Imphal campaign, during the Second World War, are written vividly on the wall of Museum. The students took the pictures of the objects that were displayed and after completing the tour of Museum, we met Mrs. Pema Chuki Kazini, wife of VC Ganju Lama. The students interviewed her, she patiently responded to their queries and gave valuable information about many photographs that were displayed there. As a token of gratitude we offered her khada.

Then at around 12:50 p.m. we reached our second destination, Thathagata Stal. There, the students got the glimpse of the life and important events related to life of Gautama Buddha from the mural and information provided in plaque.

Based on the information gathered from the trip, the students were asked to prepare a report.

This trip surely broadens the horizon of their knowledge. The students were able to gain first hand information about the life and achievement of a hero and an icon VC Ganju Lama. Similarly, they also became aware about the importance and the reason for the celebration of Saga Dawa in Sikkim. Overall the trip was successful, fruitful and enriching.
