SIKKIM GOVERNMENT COLLEGE, NAMCHI
LIMBOO DEPARTMENT
OVERVIEW OF DEPARTMENT

Brief Introduction of the Department:

Limboo is one of the regional languages of the state. The Department of Limboo was started at Sikkim Government College, Namchi in the Year 2000. Initially the College offered Limboo Language as Modern Indian Language (MIL) as optional subject for 50 Marks only under the North Bengal University. The Pass Course for 300 marks of Limboo Language elective was introduced from the year 2008 under Sikkim University. Finally with the Continuous effort the Sikkim University granted the Honours subject in Undergraduate Course from Year 2012. The Departmental initially starts with only one Resource Person in the College however with the introduction of Elective subject and subsequently Honours Subject, there are now three faculties

Founding Faculty of the Department:

Shri. Bhagesore Subba, the founding faculty of the Limboo Department, was appointed as Resource person during the year 2000 under North Bengal University. He was one of the seniors most and experienced Post Graduate Teacher (Limboo) was deputed to NGC and had served as Resource Person till 2008. He was Master in Political Science with B.Ed. Presently he is the Principal of Uttarey Sr. Secondary School, West Sikkim.
